CHARACTER APPEARANCE

Was a noble living a good life until he let himself go to gambling. Lost an exorbitant amount of money doing so and got cut off from his family and most of his friends as a result. Due to being so terrible at gambling and having lost it all, he decided that the best course of action was to allow someone or something else to make decisions for him instead. He created four extra arcane arms, two to replace his legs and feet and another two to replace his arms and hands. They were specifically generated with the intention of putting him in favorable situations at all times. Unfortunately, his idea of what a favorable situation is based on his experience gambling. As a result, these extra limbs have done little but allow Jackal to win poker games at bars as all he ever thinks about is winning his money and status back (gambling has broken this man). One day while drinking and gambling as usual, he heard that Gundren Rockseeker was seeking individuals to escort a wagon to Phandalin for 10 gold pieces. Having played blackjack and drinking with Gundren in the past, and looking for an easy way to make some quick cash, he decided to
